It's Beginning to Look a Lot Like Christmas
by Meredith Willson (1951)

(sing a)

It's be-gin-ning to look a lot like Christ-mas eve-ry—where you go—

Take a look in the five and ten glistening once a-again

With candy canes and silver lanes a-glow—

It's be-gining to look a lot like Christ-mas toys— in ev'-ry store—

But the prettiest site to see is the holly that will be on your own— front— door—

And Mom and Dad can hardly wait for school to start a-again.

It's be-gin-ning to look a lot like Christ-mas eve-ry—where you go—

There's a tree in the Grand Ho-tel one in the park as well

The sturdy kind that doesn't mind the snow—

It's be-gin-ning to look a lot like Christ-mas soon—the bells will start—

And the thing that will make them ring, is the carol that you sing
