Winter Wonderland
by Felix Bernard and Dick Smith (1934)

Sleigh bells ring—— are you liste-ning? In the lane—— snow is gliste-ning——

| G . Dm . | Em . Dm . |
A beauti-ful sight—— we're happy to-- night——

Walking in a winter wonder-land——

Gone a-way----- is the blue— bird Here to stay----- is a new bird——

| G . Dm . | Em . Dm . |
He sings a love song—— as we go a—long——

Walking in a winter wonder-land——

Bridge: In the meadow, we can build a snow-man——

Then pre-tend that he is Parson Brown——

He'll say "Are you married?" We'll say "No man——

But you can do the job when you're in town——"

Later on—— we'll con-spi— re—— as we dream—— by the fire——

| G . Dm . | Em . Dm . |
To face un-a— fraid—— the plans that we've made——

Walking in a winter wonder-land——

Instrumental Verse:

Bridge: In the meadow, we can build a snow-man——

Then pre-tend that he is Parson Brown——

He'll say “Are you married?” We'll say “No man——

But you can do the job when you're in town——”

Later on—— we'll con-spi-—— re—— as we dream—— by the fire——

To face un-a---- fraid—— the plans that we've made——

Walking in a winter wonder-land——

Walk-ing—— in a win-ter—— wonder-laaaaaaaand!
