

“Buffalo” Gals

by John Hodges (1844)

The song's name “Buffalo” comes from the city of Buffalo, NY but any location's name can be substituted in the title.

Chorus: C Buffalo gals, won't you come out to-night, G7 come out to-night, C come out to-night
C Buffalo gals, won't you come out to-night and G7 dance by the light of the moon— C

C As I was walking down the street, G7 down the street, C down the street

C A pretty little gal I chanced to meet, G7 oh, she was fair to see— C

C I stopped her and we had a talk, G7 had a talk, C had a talk

C Her feet took up the whole side-walk and G7 left no room for me— C

Chorus: C Buffalo gals, won't you come out to-night, G7 come out to-night, C come out to-night
C Buffalo gals, won't you come out to-night and G7 dance by the light of the moon— C

C I asked her if she'd have a dance, G7 have a dance, C have a dance

C I thought that I might have a chance to shake a foot with her— G7 C

C I danced with a gal with a hole in her stockin', G7 her heel kept a-knockin' and her toes kept a-rockin' C

C I danced with a gal with a hole in her stockin' and we G7 danced by the light of the moon— C

Chorus: C Buffalo gals, won't you come out to-night, G7 come out to-night, C come out to-night

C Buffalo gals, won't you come out to-night and G7 dance by the light of the moon— C C\
