G    Em7   Am7   D7   E7   G    Em7   Am7   D7
Pardon me, boy is that the Chatta-nooga choo choo—?

E7   Am7... D7... G    Em7   Am7   D7
Track twenty-nine——— Won't you gimme a shine———?

G    Em7   Am7   D7   G    Em7   Am7
I can afford——— to board a Chatta-nooga choo choo———

E7   Am7... D7... G    Am7   G7\
I've got my fare——— and just a trifle to spare——

(--- tacit ---) | C       Dm     C    Dm\ G7\ |
You leave the Pennsylvania Station 'bout a quarter to four
C       Dm     C    C7   |
Read a maga-zine and then you're in Balti———more
F       F#dim   C    A7   |
Dinner in the diner——— nothing could be finer——
D7       F     G7   |
Than to have your ham an' eggs in Car-o—lina

C       Dm     C    Dm\ G7\ |
When you hear the whistle blowin' eight to the bar——
C       Dm     C    C7   |
Then you know that Tenne-ssee is not very— far——
F       F#dim   C    A7   |
Shovel all the coal in—— gotta keep it rollin'——
D7       G7     C\ D7\ |
Woo, woo, Chatta-nooga there you are——

G        Em7   Am7   D7   G    Em7   Am7
There's gonna be——— a certain party at the station——
E7   Am7... D7... G    Em7   Am7   D7   |
Satin and lace——— I used to call "Funny— Face"——
G        Dm     G7... C... | Eb7 .. |
She's gonna cry——— un-til I tell her that I'll nev-er—— roam——
.   G    Em7   Am7   D7   G    Em7   Am7
So Chatta-nooga choo choo——— won't you choo-choo me home———?
.   D7... G    Em7   Am7   D7... G    Em7   Am7
Won't you choo-choo me home———?
.   D7... G    Em7   Am7   D7... G\ |
Won't you choo-choo me home———?
