Georgy Girl (Key of C)
by Tom Springfield and Jim Dale (1966)

Hey—there— Geor-gy Girl— swinging down the street so fan-cy free—

Nobo-dy you meet could e-ver see the loneli-ness there— in-side you

Hey— there— Geor-gy Girl— why do all the boys just pass you by?

Could it be you just don’t try or is it the clothes you wear—?

Bridge: You’re al-ways win-dow shopping but ne-ver stopping to buy——

So shed those dow-dy feathers and fly——— a little bit.

Hey— there— Geor-gy Girl— there’s an-other Geor-gy deep in-side—

Bring out all the love you hide—and oh, what a change—there’d be—

The world—would see—— a new Geor-gy Girl——

Instrumental:

Hey—there— Geor-gy Girl— dreaming of the some-one you could be—

Life is a re-al—i-ty, you can’t always run a-way——
Bridge: Don’t be so scared of changing and re—ar—ranging your-self——
It’s time for jump-ing down from the shelf—— a little bit

Hey—there— Geor-gy Girl— there’s an-other Geor-gy deep in-side—

Bring out all the love you hide— and oh, what a change— there’d be—
