Sing:

There's a time in each year—
that we always hold dear—
Good old summer time—

With the birds and the trees and sweet scented breezes
Good old summer time—

When your day's work is over then you are in clover and life is one beautiful rhyme—
No trouble amoying, each one is joying
the good old summer time—

Chorus:

In the good old summer time—
In the good old summer time—

Strolling through the shady lanes—
with your baby by mine—

You hold her hand— and she holds yours—
and that's a very good sign—
That she's your tootsie wootsie in the
Good old summer time—
To swim in the pool— you’d play hook-y from school——
Good old— summer— time——
You’d play ‘ring-a-rosie’ with Jim, Kate and Jo—sie
Good old— summer— time——

Those days, full of pleasure we now fondly treasure
when we never thought it a crime——
To go stealing cher-ries, with face brown as berries
Good old— summer— time——

Chorus:
In the good old— summer— time——
In the good old— summer— time——
Strolling through the shady lanes——
with— your— by mine——
You hold— her hand— and she— holds yours——
and that’s— a very good sign——
That she’s— your toot— woot— in— the Good old— summer— time——

Slow
In the good old— summer— time——
