September in the Rain
by Harry Warren and Al Dubin (1937)

C   Em   Am   Dm   G7   G+   C7   Gm7   C#7

(sing g)  C . Em  . | Am  . Em  . | Dm  . .  .  | .
The leaves of brown came tumbling down, remember-
That September in the rain-
 . | C  . Em  . | Am  . Em  . | Dm  . .  .  | .
The sun went out just like a dying ember-
That September in the rain-

Bridge: To every word of love I heard you whisper-
The rain drops seemed to play a sweet refrain-

. | C  . Em  . | Am  . Em  . | Dm  . .  .  | .
Though spring is here, to me it's still September-
That September in the rain-

Bridge: To every word of love I heard you whisper-
The rain drops seemed to play a sweet refrain-

. | C  . Em  . | Am  . Em  . | Dm  . .  .  | .
Though spring is here, to me it's still September-
That September in the rain-
 . . | Dm  . .  . | G7  . .  . | C  . .  . | C\ C#7\ C\nThat September in the rain-

San Jose Ukulele Club
(v2b - 10/10/17)