That Flamin’ Ukulele in the Sky (key of F)

Intro: F , C , F

F                                  F7                        Bb                                 F

Verse 1: I was a banker, cash was my need, I worshiped mammon, I bathed in greed.
Bb                                   F          Dm           F                 C                F
And then a vision, flashed ‘fore my eye-eye-eyes, of a flamin’ uku-le-le in the sky

Chorus:
F                                              F7
That flamin’ ukulele in the sky, lord, lord.
Bb                               F
That flamin’ ukulele in the sky
Bb                                                 F                         Dm
It had four sweet golden strings, and the sound of angel wings
F               C                F
That flamin’ uku-le-le in the sky.

Verse 2: I was a preacher, I fell from grace. Got caught nekkid, at Mabel’s place
Bb                                     F   Dm             F                C                F
I asked forgiveness, and God’s reply-y-y, was a flamin’ uku-le-le in the sky

Chorus
F                            F7                    Bb                              F

Verse 3: I was a lawyer, had all the luck, I bent the truth, just to make a buck
Bb                     F   Dm                F                 C                F
But now it’s my turn, to testify-y-y, ‘bout a flaming’ uku-le-le in the sky

Chorus
F                              F7                           Bb                              F

Verse 4: So as you wander, life’s rocky road, and start to stumble, beneath the load
Bb                   F    Dm           F              C                F
Your sweat and toil, will sanctify- y- y, that flamin’ uku-le-le in the sky.

Chorus

Ending: play slowly, ~~ = tremolo
Bb                                                    F                          D7
It had four sweet golden strings, and the sound of angel wings
