The Fountain in the Park
by Ed Haley (1884)

While strolling in the park one day—— all in the merry month of May——

.G . . . . . | C . . . | A7
A roguish pair of eyes, they took me by sur-prise

in a moment my poor heart they stole a-way——

B . . . . . . | Em . . . . | B . . . | Em . . . |
Chorus: Oh, a sunny smile was all she gave to me (whistle------------------------)

And we were hap—py as could be (whistle------------------------)

So neatly I raised my hat—— and made a po-lite re-mark——

.G . . . . . | C . . . | A7
I never shall for-get that lovely after-noon

when I met her at the fountain in the park——

(same chords as verse)

B . . . . . | Em . . . | B . . . | Em . . . |
Chorus: Oh, a sunny smile was all she gave to me (whistle------------------------)

And we were hap—py as could be (whistle------------------------)
We lingered there beneath the trees
Her voice was like the fragrant breeze
We talked of happy love 'til the stars above
When her loving "yes" she gave my heart to please

(slower) I never shall forget that lovely afternoon
when I met her at the fountain in the park
