The redtail hawk writes songs a-cross the sky
There's music in the waters flow-in by
And you can hear a song each time the wind sighs
In the golden roll-in' hills of Cal-i-forn-ia
In the golden roll-in' hills of Cal-i-forn-ia
It's been so long, Love, since you said good-bye
My cabin's been as lonesome as a cry
There's comfort in the clouds drift-in' by
In the golden roll-in' hills of Cal-i-forn-ia
In the golden roll-in' hills of Cal-i-forn-ia

A neighbour came to-day to lend a hand——
He saw I fixed the road as best I can——
It's just some-thing that needs a man's hand——

In the golden roll-in' hills of Cal-i-forn-ia——

The redtail hawk writes songs a-cross the sky——
There's music in the waters flow-ing by——
And you can hear a song each time the wind sighs——

In the golden roll-in' hills of Cal-i-forn-ia——
In the golden roll-in' hills of Cal-i-forn-ia——
