Your Mother Should Know
by Paul McCartney (1967)

Intro: Am . . . | . . .

Am                           F
A7                     Dm

Let’s all get up and dance to a song that was a hit before your mother was born

G7                                    C          C
maj                                      A7

Though she was born a long, long time a-go,

D7            G7                                       C                 E7\`

Your mother should know (your mother) your mother should know (ah-ah) Sing it again

Am                           F                                       A7
Dm

Let’s all get up and dance to a song that was a hit before your mother was born

G7                                    C          C
maj                                      A7

Though she was born a long, long time a-go,

D7            G7                                       C

Your mother should know (your mother) your mother should know (ah-ah)

Am                           F                                       A7
Dm

Lift up your hearts and sing me a song that was a hit before your mother was born

G7                                    C          C
maj                                      A7

Though she was born a long, long time a-go,

D7            G7                                       C                 A7

Your mother should know (your mother) your mother should know (ah-ah-ah)

Your mother should know (your mother) your mother should know (ah-ah)

Am                           F                                       A7
Dm

G7                                    C          C
maj                                      A7

Though she was born a long, long time a-go,

D7            G7                                       C                 A7

Your mother should know (your mother) your mother should know (ah-ah-ah)

Your mother should know (your mother) your mother should know (ah-ah)

Your mother should know (your mother) your mother should know (yeah yeah)

San Jose Ukulele Club
(6/30/14)