

Chickery Chick

Composer: Music by: Sidney Lippman © 1943
Lyricist: words: Sylvia Dee

Intro:

F C7 F C F
Once there lived a chicken who would say "Chick-chick" "Chick Chick" all day.
F C7 F Dm7 G7 C7
Soon that chick got sick & tired of just "Chick-chick" so one morning he started to say:

Chorus:

F C7
Chickery Chick Cha-la Cha-la. Checka-la romei in a bananika,
F Bb
Bollika wollika, can't you see?

F C7 F
Chickery Chick is me. (Repeat chorus once).

Bridge:

A E7 A E7
Ev'ry time you're sick & tired of just the same old thing;
A E7 A
Sayin' just the same old words all day.
C G7 C G7 C
Be just like the chicken who found something new to sing:
D7 G7 C7
Open up your mouth & start to say: Oh!

Repeat Chorus once:
