Something Stupid, page 1 of 2

Words and music by Carson Sparks and Gaile Foote who recorded their song in 1966.

Recorded 1967 by Frank and Nancy Sinatra in Eb. Recorded 2001 by Robbie Williams and Nicole Kidman in G.

Intro: F Dm Gm7/ C7/ Gm7/ C7/ F/// C7///

Verse 1:

F/                     Dm/               FM7/                     F         FM7        Gm7/                 C7/ Gm7/ C7/

I know I stand in line, until you think you have the time to spend an evening with me.

[4]    >                     >                          >                               >                 >       >    [3]       >      >
Gm7/              C7/                     Gm7/                       C7/                           F6/                   F/ F6/ F/

And if we go some place to dance, I know that there's a chance you won't be leaving with me.

[3]     [3]                       [5]              [b7]            [b7]   >    >    >    [6]    >
F7/                      Cm7/          F7/            Cm7/                  Bb6///         Db///

And afterwards we drop into a quiet little place and have a drink or two

Gm7/              C7/               Gm7/                   C7/                 F///        F///

And then I go and spoil it all, by saying something stupid like, “I love you”.

Chorus:

[3]     >          [5]              [b7]            [b7]   >    >    >    [6]    >
F7/                     Cm7/               F7/            Cm7/                  Bb6///         Bb6///

I can see it in your eyes that you despise the same old lies you heard the night before.
Verse 2:

I practice every day to find some clever lines to say to make the meaning come through

But then I think I'll wait until the evening gets late and I'm alone with you

The time is right, your perfume fills my head, the stars get red, and, oh, the night's so blue

And then I go and spoil it all, by saying something stupid like, "I love you".