A World of Our Own (Key of G)
by Tom Springfield (of The Seekers) (1965)

(sing b)

Close the door— Light the light— We’re stay-ing home to-night—
Far a-way— from the bus-tille and the bright— cit-y lights—
Let them all— fade a-way— just leave— us a-lone—
And we’ll live— in a world— of our own—

Chorus: We’ll build a world— of our own— that no-one else can share—
All our sor-rows we’ll leave— far be-hind— us there—
And I know— you will find— there’ll be— peace of mind—
When we live— in a world— of our own—

Oh, my love— oh my love— I’ve cried— for you so much—
Lone-ly nights— with-out sleep-ing while I longed— for your touch—
Now your lips— can e-rase— the heart—ache I’ve known—
Come with me— to a world— of our own—

Chorus: We’ll build a world— of our own— that no-one else can share—
All our sor-rows we’ll leave— far be-hind— us there—
And I know— you will find— there’ll be— peace of mind—
When we live— in a world— of our own—
