Can’t You Hear My Heartbeat? (Key of C)
by John Carter and Ken Lewis (1965)
as sung by Herman’s Hermits

Every time I see you looking my way, baby, ba-by, can’t you hear my heart-beat?
In the car or walking down the high-way, baby, ba-by, can’t you hear my heart-beat?

Refrain 1:
F . . . | . . . | G . . . | . . .
When you move up close to me, I get a feeling that’s oo-oo-whee (oo!)
Can’t you hear the pounding of my heart-beat?
Cuz you’re the one I lo--ove. You’re the one I love---------.

When I feel you put your arms a-round me, Baby ba-by, can’t you hear my heart-beat?
Then I’m glad, I’m mighty glad I found you. Baby, ba-by, can’t your hear my heart-beat?

Refrain 2:
F . . . | . . . | G . . . | . . . . . .
When you asked me to meet your ma, I knew that baby, we’d be going far (ahh!)
Can’t you hear the pounding of my heart-beat?
Cuz you’re the one I lo--ove. You’re the one I love---------.

All my friends are crying out to meet you. Baby, ba-by, can't you hear my heart-beat?

Now’s the time to go and see the preach-er. Baby, ba-by, can’t you hear my heart-beat?

Refrain 3:
Wedding bells are going to chime. Baby, baby you're gonna to be mine. (ahh!)
Can’t you hear the pounding of my heart-beat?

Cuz you’re the one I love--
