Carolina in the Morning
by Walter Donaldson and Gus Kahn (1922)

(sing g)
Nothing could be finer, than to be in Caro-lina in the morn——ing
No one could be sweeter, than my sweetie when I meet her in the morn——ing

Where the morn——ing glor-ies—— twine a-round the door——
Whisper-ing pret-ty stor-ies—— I long to hear once more——

Strolling with my girlie where the dew is pearly early in the morn——ing
Butter-flies all flutter up and kiss each little butter-cup at dawn——ing

If I had A-laddin's lamp for only a day—— I'd make a wish and here's what I'd say——
Nothing could be finer than to be in Caro-lina in the morn——ing

Where the morn——ing glor-ies—— twine a-round the door——
Whisper-ing pret-ty stor-ies—— I long to hear once more——

Strolling with my girlie where the dew is pearly early in the morn——ing
