Carolina in the Morning
by Walter Donaldson and Gus Kahn (1922)

(sing g)

Nothing could be finer, than to be in Caro-lina in the morn——ing

No one could be sweeter, than my sweetie when I meet her in the morn——ing

Where the morn——ing glor-ies—— twine a-round the door——

Whisper-ing pret-ty stor-ies—— I long to hear once more——

Strolling with my girlie where the dew is pearly early in the morn——ing

Butter-flies all flutter up and kiss each little butter-cup at dawn——ing

If I had A-laddin's lamp for only a day—— I'd make a wish and here's what I'd say——

Nothing could be finer than to be in Caro-lina in the morn——ing

Where the morn——ing glor-ies—— twine a-round the door——

Whisper-ing pret-ty stor-ies—— I long to hear once more——

Strolling with my girlie where the dew is pearly early in the morn——ing
