Have Yourself a Merry Little Christmas
by Hugh Martin and Ralph Blane (1943)

Have your self a merry little Christ mas, let your heart be light

From now on, our troubles will be out of sight.

Have your self a merry little Christmas, make the yule tide gay,

From now on our troubles will be miles a way.

Here we are as in olden days, happy golden days of yore.

Faithful friends who are dear to us, gather near to us once more.

Through the years we all will be together, if the fates allow

Hang a shining star upon the highest bough

and have your self a merry little Christmas now.

Here we are as in olden days, happy golden days of yore.

Faithful friends who are dear to us, gather near to us once more.

Through the years we all will be together, if the fates allow

Hang a shining star upon the highest bough

(slowly) and have your self a merry little Christmas now.
