Heart and Soul (key of C)
by Hoagy Carmichael and Frank Loesser (1938)

Heart and soul— I fell in love with you heart and soul— the way a fool would do
Mad—ly—, because you held me tight and stole a kiss in the night.

Heart and soul— I begged to be adored, lost control and tumbled overboard
Glad—ly—, that magic night we kissed there in the moon-mist.

Bridge: Oh, but your lips were thrilling much too thrilling
Ne-ver be-fore were mine so strange—ly will—ing

But now I see, what one embrace can do look at me— It’s got me loving you
Mad—ly—, that little kiss you stole— held all my heart and soul—

Instrumental:

Bridge: Oh, but your lips were thrilling much too thrilling
Ne-ver be-fore were mine so strange—ly will—ing

But now I see, what one embrace can do look at me— It’s got me loving you
Mad—ly—, that little kiss you stole— held all my heart and soul—
