Hurry Sundown
by the Outlaws

. | Em . . . . . . . . | C . . . . . . . .
Gypsies danced a-round the campfire, shook their tambourines,
. | D . . . . . . . . | Am . . | Em
They were waiting for the ghost of an outlaw, Sundown was his name.
. | . . . . . . . . | C . .
As the midnight hour grew closer and the sky began to fall,
. | D . . . . . . . .
You could see his shadow in the light of the moon,
He heard the gypsies' call.

. | Em . . . . . . . . | C . . . . . . . .
She had hair as black as darkness, her eyes were emerald green,
. | D . . . . . . . . | Am . . | Em
Oh, her voice was soft and tender, and, ooooh, she loved to sing.
. | . . . . . . . . | C . . . . . . . .
She will sing no more, or dance a-gain, or shake her tambourine,
. | D . . . . . . . .
They have taken her a-way, she's dead and gone,
| Am . . | Em . . . |
You could hear the gypsies' sing.

Chorus: Oo-ooo, hurry Sun-down, (the gypsies' cry) oo-ooo hurry Sun-down
Am . D . | Em . . . . . . . . | C . D
Oo-ooo, hurry Sun-down
(oh, the gypsies' cry)

. | Em . . . . . . . . | C . . . . . . . .
Silver doubles in his holsters, stars strapped to his heels,
. | D . . . . . . . . | Am . . | Em
There was fire in his eyes, they say that he was dressed to kill.
. | . . . . . . . . | C . . . . . . . .
He had hands as fast as lightening, a heart as cold as steel,
. | D . . . . . . . . | Am . . | Em . . . |
He had come for the one that took her life to lie him in Boot Hill
Chorus: Oo-ooo, hurry Sun-down, (the gypsies’ cry)  oo-ooo hurry Sun-down
Am   D   |Em   ....   .|Am   D   |Em   ... |

Oo-ooo, hurry Sun-down
(oh, the gypsies’ cry)

Gypsies danced a-round the campfire, shook their tambour - rines,
D                        |Am      Em
They were waiting for the ghost of an outlaw, Sundown was his name.
C                        |   C
As the midnight hour grew closer and the sky be-gan to fall,
D                        |   D
You could see their shadows in the light of the moon,
Am      |   Em   ...
They’d heard the gypsies’ call..

Chorus: Oo-ooo, hurry Sun-down, oo-ooo hurry Sun-down
Am   D   |Em   ....   .|Am   D   |Em   ... |

Oo-ooo, hurry Sun—un—down