I Like Ukuleles
by Joe Brown

C D7 G G#dim7 Dm Adim7 Adim7(2) F B7 A7

Oh, I like uku-leles, they always make you smile.

G7 . . . . . . . . C C#dim7 Dm G7
What-ever trouble comes your way, it'll be O--K in a little while.

C . . . . . . . . D7 . . .
Just pluck a little tune now, it's easy if you try.

G7 . . . . . . . . Adim7\\\(slide\) Adim7(2)\\\|\\\|\\\| G7 . . . C
Just a couple of chords and a flick of the wrist and you start to wonder why.

F . . . . . . . . . . . . C . .
You've never tried this be-fore. It'll open a door,

D7 . . . . . . . . G7\ D7\ G7\ ---
To something that you thought you couldn't do. . .

F . . . . . . . . . . . . C . . .
And take it from me, that little jumping flea.

D7 . . . . . . . . G7\ D7\ G7\ Will cheer you up and chase a-way your blues . .

So, give me a uke ----- I want a u--ku--le-le It speaks to me saying please, please play me.

All through the day, and all on my own. I'll be strumming a-way 'til the cows come home.

C . . . . . . . . . . . . D7

C . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . .
So play your uku-lele. Don't keep it to your-self.

G7 . . . . . . . . C . C#dim7 Dm G7
Your moans and groans will fade a-way. They should stick'em on the national health.

C . . . . . . . . . . . . D7
I love my uku-lele. It's always been a friend.

G7 . . . . . . . . . . . . C .
I'll hold it tight and keep it close, right to the very end.
