(Sing d)

When we got mar—ried back in Nine-teen For-ty – Four———

We’d board that sil—ver lin—er below— Bal—ti—more———

Trip to Vir—gin—ia on a sunny— honey— moon———

D7 . . . | . . . . . | . | G . . . |
No—bo—dy cares a—bout the rail—roads any———more

We’d tip that por—ter for a place of— our own———

Then send a post—card to your mom and— dad back home———

It did some-thin’ to ya when you’d hear that “All a—board——”

D7 . . . | . . . . . | . | G . . . |
No—bo—dy cares a—bout the rail—roads any———more

We had a daughter— and you ought’a see her now———

She has a boy— friend who looks just like my gal Sal———

And when they’re marr-ied they won’t need us— any———more

D7 . . . | . . . . . | . | G . . . |
They’ll board an aero-plane— and fly a—way from Bal-ti—more——
