Penny Lane (Key of G)

by Paul McCartney (1967)

In Penny Lane, there is a barber showing photographs of every head he's had the pleasure to know——

And all the people that come and go—— stop and say hello——

On the corner is a banker with a motor car

The little children laugh at him behind his back and the banker never wears a mac in the pouring rain very strange

Chorus: Penny Lane—— is in my—— ears—— and in my—— eyes——

There—— beneath the—— blue—— suburban skies I sit and mean-while back

In Penny Lane there is a fireman with an hour-glass and in his pocket is a portrait of the Queen

He likes to keep his fire-engine clean—— it's a clean ma-achine

Instrumental: Ahhh——— Am7 — D — G —— Gm7 —

Ahhh———

Ahhh———

ah-Ah ah- Ahhh——

Chorus: Penny Lane—— is in my—— ears—— and in my—— eyes——

Four of fish and fin-ger pies in summer, mean-while back Behind the shelter in the middle of a round-a-bout
a pretty nurse is selling poppies from a tray——
and though she feels as if she's in a— play-ay-ay-ay she is any-way

Penny Lane, the barber shaves another customer
We see the banker sitting waiting for a trim and the fireman rushes in from the pouring rain, very strange

Chorus: Penny Lane— is in my— ears— and in my— eyes——
There— beneath the— blue—sub-urb-an skies I sit and mean-while back

Penny Lane— is in my— ears— and in my— eyes——
There— beneath the blue— sub-urb-an skies——
Penny Lane——
