Penny Lane (original key-B)
by Paul McCartney and John Lennon (1967)

In Penny Lane, there is a barber shop with photographs of every head he's had the pleasure to know.
And all the people that come and go stop and say hello.

On the corner is a banker with a motor car.
The little children laugh at him behind his back.
And the banker never wears a mac in the pouring rain, very strange.

Chorus: Penny Lane is in my ears and in my eyes.
There, beneath the blue suburban skies I sit and mean while back.

In Penny Lane there is a fireman with an hourglass and in his pocket is a portrait of the Queen.
He likes to keep his fire engine clean, it's a clean machine.

Instrumental: Ahhh.

Chorus: Penny Lane is in my ears and in my eyes.
Four of fish and finger pies, in summer, mean while back.
Behind the shelter in the middle of a round-about,
a pretty nurse is selling poppies from a tray
and though she feels as if she’s in a play she is any-way

Penny Lane, the barber shaves another customer
We see the banker sitting waiting for a trim and the fireman rushes in from the pouring rain, very strange

Chorus:  Penny Lane is in my ears and in my eyes
        There, beneath the blue suburban skies I sit and mean-while back

Chorus:  Penny Lane is in my ears and in my eyes
        There, beneath the blue suburban skies Penny Lane
