I'll Follow the Sun
by Paul McCartney (1964)

(sing d)
One—day—, you'll—look—, to see I've gone——
For to-morrow may rain so, I'll fol—low the sun——

Bridge: . . . | Dm . . . | Fm . . . | C . . . | C7
And now the time has come—, and so my love, I must go——
. . . | Dm . . . | Fm . . . | C . . . | Dm . . . |
And though I lose a friend—, in the end you will know——, Oh—— oh-oh

One—day—, you'll—find—, that I have gone——
For to-morrow may rain so, I'll fol—low the sun——

A--------------------------0 3 2 5
E---------------------------3
C 2------------------------3
G

Yes to-morrow may rain so, I'll fol—low the sun——

Bridge: . . . | Dm . . . | Fm . . . | C . . . | C7
And now the time has come—, and so my love, I must go——
. . . | Dm . . . | Fm . . . | C . . . | Dm . . . |
And though I lose a friend—, in the end you will know——, Oh—— oh-oh

One—day—, you'll—find—, that I have gone——
For to-morrow may rain so, I'll fol—low the sun——

San Jose Ukulele Club
(v5a-4/23/20)