We'll sing in the sun-shine—  We'll laugh ev'ry da-ay—

We'll sing in the sun-shine— then I'll be on my way——

I will ne-ver love you—— the cost of love's too dear——

.  .  .  .  .  F  .  .  | G7  .  .  .  | C

But though I'll ne-ver love you—— I'll stay with you one year

And we can sing in the sun-shine—— we'll laugh ev'ry da-ay——

C  Cmaj7  | F  .  .  | G7  .  .  .  | C  Cmaj7  | F  G7  |

We'll sing in the sun-shine— then I'll be on my way——

I'll sing to you each mor-ning  I'll kiss you ev'ry night——

.  .  .  .  .  F  .  .  | G7  .  .  .  | C

But dar-ling don't cling to me—— I'll soon be out of sight

But we can sing in the sun-shine—— we'll laugh ev'ry da-ay——

C  Cmaj7  | F  .  .  | G7  .  .  .  | C  Cmaj7  | F  G7  |

We'll sing in the sun-shine— then I'll be on my way——

My dad-dy, he once told me—— "Hey don't you love you an-y— man——

.  .  .  .  .  F  .  .  | G7  .  .  .  | C

Just take what they may give you—— and give but what you can

And you can sing in the sun-shine—— you'll laugh ev'ry da-ay——

C  Cmaj7  | F  .  .  | G7  .  .  .  | C  Cmaj7  | F  G7  |

You'll sing in the sun-shine—— then be on your way——
And when our year has ended and I have gone a-way—
You'll of-ten speak a-bout me— and this is what you'll say

"We sang in the sun-shine—— you know we laughed eve-ry da-a-ay——
We sang in the sun-shine—— then she went on her wa-a-ay——"
