C         C7            F             G7                             C
We'll sing in the sunshine,     we'll laugh every da-a-a-ay,
C         C7            F             G7                             C
We'll sing in the sunshine,     then I'll be on my way.

C         F             G7            C
I will never love you, the cost of love is too dear.
          F             G7            C
But though I'll never love you, I'll stay with you one year.

C9               F             G7                             C
And we can sing in the sunshine,     we'll laugh every da-a-a-ay
C9               F             G7                             C
We'll sing in the sunshine,     then I'll be on my way.

C         F             G7            C
I'll sing to you each morning, I'll kiss you every night
          F             G7            C
But darling, don't cling to me, I'll soon be out of sight.

But we can sing in the sunshine,     we'll laugh every da-a-a-ay
C         C7             F             G7                             C
We'll sing in the sunshine,     then I'll be on my way.

My daddy, he once told me, “Hey don't you love you any man.
          F             G7            C
Just take what they may give you, and give but what you can.

C         C7             F             G7                             C
And you can sing in the sunshine,     you'll laugh every da-a-a-ay.
C         C7             F             G7                             C
You'll sing in the sunshine,     then be on your way.”

C         F             G7            C
And when our year has ended, and I have gone a-way.
          F             G7            C
You'll often speak a-bout me, and this is what you'll say.

C         C7             F             G7                             C
“We sang in the sunshine,     you know we laughed every da-a-a-ay.
C         C7             F             G7                             C
We sang in the sunshine,     then she went on her way.”
