Yes, We Have No Bananas
by Frank Silver and Irving Cohn (1923)

.
.
.
Oh, yes—we have no—bananas—We have no—bananas—to-day——
.
.
.
We've got string beans—and onions—cabbage and scallions
.
.
.
And all sorts of fruit and say——
.
.
.
We have an old—fashioned to-mah-to—a Long Island—poh-tah-to——
.
.
.
But yes—we have no—bananas—We have no—bananas—to-day——

.
.
.
Kazoo
.
.
.
.
.
.
We've got carrots and mushrooms and onions and legumes
.
.
.
And all kinds of beans and say——
.
.
.
We've got an old—fashioned salami—and some—Brooklyn pa-strami——
.
.
.
But yes—we have no—bananas—We have no—bananas—to-day——
.
.
.
We have no—bananas—to-day——